LEATHER FOR GREAT BRITAIN

The Embargo is Lifted and Large Shipments Expected.

New York, July 5.—All restriction on the importation of leather into Great Britain have been removed by the British government. It has been announced here by the tanners' council. There has been on change in restrictions on the importation of shoes into Great Britain. It was added, under which may be imported there only 25 per cent of the number of pairs received in 1913.

With the lifting of the leather embargo, heavy shipments are expected of leather which has been purchased and held in storage here by British merchants, it is said.

KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Pawcatuck, Conn., Man Was Struck by New York Man's Car.

Stonington, Conn., July 7.—Felix Slocum, 65, a fish peddler of Pawcatuck, was killed today when the horse and wagon he was driving were struck by an automobile driven by Maurice Custer of New York City. Custer was in the borough court later and gave $2,000 bonds for appearance Saturday.

Slocum with his usual fish supply, was driving over the state highway, when struck. Custer says the horse stepped in front of his machine and the collision was unavoidable. A man with Slocum was thrown out, hurt, and later taken to New London for hospital treatment.

NEW FIGHT BETWEEN FRENCH AND ITALIANS

Casualties Reported Are Six Killed and Twenty Wounded—Intense Feeling is Developed.

Rome, July 7.—New clashes between the French and Italians at Fiume are reported in advices from that city. The casualties, so far reported, number six killed and twenty wounded.

General Savy, commander of the French troops at Fiume, said in an interview published yesterday in the Giornale d'Italia that the action of some of his soldiers who recently offended Italians in that city by cheering for Yugoslavia was "most deplorable." He points out, however, that it would be a "mistake to generalize and make the fault of a few that of the whole French contingent."

The National Council at Fiume yesterday passed a resolution enumerating the incidents caused by the attitude of French soldiers there, an attitude considered offensive to the feelings of the population. The resolution asked withdrawal of the French troops, as their presence endangered friendly Franco-Italian relations.

Milan, July 6.—The Fiume correspondent of the Journal Le Sera reports that Jugoslav troops made an attempt to disembark at Martinschizza, in rear of the Italian forces holding the armistice line. General Graziosi, the Italian commander of the interallied contingents, informed the French General, Savy, and asked him to thwart this move, as one likely to lead to unpleasant incidents. On July 6, General Savy replying that he had no power to interfere, but would seek instructions from General d'Esperey, Commander in Chief of the Eastern armies, whose headquarters are at Constantinople. General Graziosi said he would take independent action.

When the huge transport, requisitioned by the French, belonging to the Hungary-Croatian Line, appeared before Martinschizza Bay, crammed with Serbians and Jugoslav soldiery, General Graziosi sent forward the Italian destroyer Stocco to order the steamer to return immediately to the port of departure, threatening that otherwise he would send her to the bottom of the sea.

The Serb-Jugoslav transport took the wiser course.

BRAZIL STRIKE BROKE DOWN

Was Called on Largest and Most Important Railroad.

Rio Janeiro, July 6.—The strike called Saturday night on the Central railroad of Brazil, the largest and most important in the country, seems to have broken down. The train service, which began to be interrupted at 10 o'clock last night was reported normal this morning. Police and troops were freely used to guard the trains and the non-striking employees.

The collapse of the strike apparently was due to division among the men of whom only a small part, it is declared, desired to go out.

Show Your Colors!

Show Your Colors!

THE PEACE TREATY is accepted by the Germans and the war is over, but the demand for patriotism and loyalty is always a part citizenship.

Show your colors by showing the Stars and Stripes over yr home or place of business. There are evil forces of anarchy, riot, Bolshevism and disorder abroad in the land and trying to undermine the government of this country.

The best answer we can make is to show the U.S. flag a to stand by its colors.
